Rani Phool

Seven pages for one week, by hand, in the diary with this cover.

READ YOUR COVER

Your cover is cotton, hand block-printed: rani pink densely printed with white flowers. Even a print this dense is made one impression at a time, each block lined up by eye against the one before.

Simplified drawings, not copies of a printer's block.

THE ONLY RULES

- One page a day
- By hand, about ten minutes
- No rubbing out
- Nobody else has to read it

A page written by hand is the one nobody else could have written.

FROM THE STUDIO, AHMEDABAD

THIS WEEK

01	WRITE 10 min	Rani pink is a bold colour. Write about the boldest thing you have worn, said or done, and what happened next.
02	DRAW 10 min	Cover the page in small flowers, as densely as you can in ten minutes, without letting any two touch.
03	LOOK 10 min	Notice who around you dresses in colour this week. Write down three outfits you liked, and why.
04	WRITE 10 min	Write about a woman you admire who is not famous.
05	MAKE 10 min	List compliments you have received and still remember, one per line. Then add one you would like to give yourself.
06	WRITE 10 min	Describe a crowded place you love: a market, a mela, a station. What makes it feel full rather than busy?
07	RETURN 5 min	Read the week back. Which page is the most you? Put a small flower on it.
